

TOOL // Reading Record Formative Assessment Using iPod

What is it used for?

The tool provides an actual record of student reading performance during a reading record assessment.

How do you use it?

The teacher uses an iPad or iPod to record a student reading to them. The recording is then played back to the student so the student can self-assess how well they read, and can set a goal for their reading.